

Your Guide to Promotion Board

Before To be done before the day of promotion board -- not the day of

- Study expected knowledge for the rank you are going up for (ranks, chain of command and
- Have your uniform meet the standards laid out in the Cadet Reference Manual (cover included)
- Make sure you meet grooming standards too
- Have your promotion sheet completely filled out (can be found on the shelf outside of Staff Room)
- Make sure your cadet record is fully updated and shared with your company staff - this should be done before the day of promotion board

During To be acknowledged for going to promotion board

- You will be in front of your company staff
- Remain at the position of attention the whole time
- Keep your bearing.....even if asked questions that seem unusual. Do not look around
- You will march in and report to your company commander, following this procedure
  - ***Salute*** “Sir/Ma’am Cadet (your name and rank) respectfully requesting promotion consideration to the desired rank of (rank you are going up for)”
***CO returns the salute and says “Very well” and drops salute*** ***Then you drop your salute*****
- Know your intentions for the unit and why you’re going up for this rank.
- What are your future goals?
- How will you use your higher position to contribute to the unit?
- How have you contributed to the unit thus far?
- Are you involved in any of the activities organized through ROTC?
- In addition, you may be asked military knowledge and questions regarding the Chain of Command (internal and external) as aforementioned.

Post Consider this after the promotion board

- Do not freak out -- please
- You will hear if you were promoted at an upcoming battalion formation
- It will be okay

Tips:

- Disclaimer: The company staff is not scary, and they are not here to yell at you during promotion board and tell you that you suck. They all understand it is intimidating and have all been in front of a promotion board before. Everything they tell you is meant to help you. You don't need to be scared.
- Do not ask for signatures 5 minutes before the promotion board. You will not get it. Get them before or on the day of.
- If you do not know the answer to a question, don't panic. Don't look around or do anything out of line. Calmly reply: "This cadet does not know, but will report back if requested sir/ma'am"
- If requested to report back, find the answer and return it to your staff at the end of the board.
- CHECK FOR Irish Pennants (dangling pieces of the fabric sticking out of shirt or pants)
- Shine your shoes
